

MONDAY NIGHT FOOTBALL STATS, ANALYSIS AND PREDICTIONS

2023 NFL WEEK 1 PREVIEW

This week's Monday Night Football matchup features a classic AFC East matchup between my New York Jets and the Buffalo Bills. It's about a future HOF and a near future HOF.

Here is a comprehensive summary of our DFS stats, expert analysis, and accurate predictions for this highly anticipated NFL matchup:

New York Jets: So the J.E.T.S must have a connection with the Green Bay Packers as this is their 2nd HOF they sign from the Packers, now these guys are almost at their end of use, but it has made them competitive and increased ticket sales. First, Brett Favre (39 years old when he played for the Jets for 1 season) and now, Aaron Rodgers (ahh same age 39 as of today).

New York Jets New Players this season and players they are possibly meant to replace.

Incoming Players	Position	Replaces Player (Departures)	Position
Israel Abanikanda (Draft)	RB	Ty Johnson	RB
Zach Kuntz (Draft)	TE	Joe Flaco	QB
Randall Cobb (GB)	WR	Mike White	QB
Allen Lazard (GB)	WR	Braxton Berrios	WR
Mecole Hardman (KC)	WR
Aaron Rodgers (GB)	QB

Buffalo Bills:

Buffalo Bills New Players this season and players they are possibly meant to replace.

Incoming Player	Position	Replaces Player (Departures)	Position
Dalton Kincaid (Draft)	TE	Tommy Sweeney	TE
Justin Shorter (Draft)	WR	Isiah McKenzie	WR
Kyle Allen	QB	Case Keenum	QB
Tren Sherfield (MIA)	WR	Jamison Crowder	WR
Damien Harris (NE)	RB	Duke Johnson Devin Singletary	RB RB

Deonte Harty (NO)	WR

NFL Matchup: A detailed breakdown of the key stats and factors that will influence the game's outcome including Rank & Yardage Variance,

As mentioned, our DraftKings, and FanDuel strategy includes looking at the Rank Variance of each phase of the game for that offense and defense.

This week's NFL Monday Night Football matchup shows that the following:

New York Jets Offense vs. Buffalo Bills Defense: The J.E.T.S don't have too much of an advantage over the Bills defense, but that's on paper and there's a new QB, WR's and more with the 2023 Jets.

We predict a competitive game and while Vegas has it a close game, we predict an instant classic. These two QB's are fighters, they want to win and will sacrifice their bodies for that win and also - they are freaking "supa" football smart.

The Buffalo Bills Offense Vs. the New York Jets Defense: On paper, the Bills have a great advantage in the Pass, Run and receiving game, but it's a new year. The Bills coaching staff run a tight ship, they drafted well and attracted players that will contribute immensely to the game.

We're predicting this game to be an instant classic because of the players, not the stats - "come on man" Aaron Rodgers vs. Josh Allen, NY vs Upstate NY, Diggs, Lazard, Cook, Knowx, and Rookies such as Israel Abanikanda born in Brooklyn and Justin Shorter - "a special teams ace". Mark my Monday Morning QB words, this will be an instant classic.

Vegas odds have this game at a total points of 47 with the Bills favorites by 1.5.

Game Predictions: Gain an edge with our reliable predictions on player performances, scores, Vegas odds have this game at a total points of 47 with the Bills favorites by 1.5.

Fantasy Football Points Predictions: We provide valuable predictions for players in Point-Per-Reception (PPR) leagues, helping you strategize and optimize your fantasy football lineups based on their expected receptions.

Our daily fantasy football model shows a moderate scoring game with both QB's scoring just averaging 18 FFP, but again this is Rodgers and for Allen and additional 5 points for the run game and if he scores - even better.

Predictions show a high FFP's for Stefon Diggs 15.83 FFP, so he would be a good Captain and 22 Points for the Jets top 2 receivers - that can be Lazard, Corey Davis and of course Mecole Hardman.

Self-Proclaimed Expert Game Analysis: Our team of experts dissects player performances and team dynamics for strategic gameplay.

We will try our best and not be your typical Monday Morning QB, so we will put our predictions and game expectations right here for all to see and for us to refer back to once the game is over.

Now, the opening game of the season is tricky, there are players coming in, you have to account for those that either retired or left for another team and then of course are the rookies. Some of these rookies will replace players that have left and will make an impact right away, but then there are others that will be backups and will need further development equating to one or two or maybe a low usage percentage of less than 5%.

The running game is predicted to be just over 100 yards for each team and well over 200 yards for each team in passing.

Scoring, you saw the Vegas odds, and we agree this will be a moderate scoring game, just 47 points, but then again this is Rodgers vs. Allen. All we know is that this is going to be an instant classic.

Good Luck on your Daily Fantasy Football contest and remember no matter if you play on DraftKings or FanDuel or any other Daily Fantasy Football platform, we have stats, analysis and predictions that are specific to DFS.
